

Liferaft Equipment List

Equipment	ISO		USL Code	Yachting Australia SR Appendix A (Recreational)	NSCV C7A In addition of ISO Pack 1
	Pack 1 >24Hr	Pack 2 < 24 h
Portable buoyant baler easily operable by hand	1	1	1 b	1
Sponge	2	2	1 d	1d
Rescue Line (30mt) and Quoit	1	1	1	1
Safety Knife	1	1	1 b	1
Safety Tin Opener			1
Sea anchor	1e	1e	1	1e
Rescue Signal Table			1	1
Fishing Kit & Hooks			1
Waterproof Matches			1
Chemical Lights			6
Instruction for Immediate action		1		1
Pair of buoyant paddles with handles (not mitts) tied into raft adjacent to an entrance	1	1	1	1
First-Aid Kit including at least 2 tubes of sunscreen. All dressings must be capable of being effectively used in wet conditions. The first-aid kit shall be clearly marked and shall be re-sealable	1	0	1 f	1
Whistle	1	1		1
Waterproof torch with 6 h duration and separate battery and bulb or complementary torch	2	1	1 i	1
Signaling mirror	1	1	1	1
Anti-seasickness pills, per person	6	6	6	6
Seasickness bag with simple effective closure system, per person	1	1		5 d
Red hand flares in accordance with SOLAS LSA Code Chapter III, 3.2	6	3	2 c	4c
Orange Smoke Flare			1 c	2c
Red parachute flares in accordance with SOLAS LSA Code Chapter III, 3.1	2	2		2
Thermal protective aids in accordance with SOLAS LSA Code Chapter III, 2.5	2	0
Repair outfit to enable survivors to repair leaks in any or all of the inflatable compartments. Repair systems must work when wet and be capable of being applied during violent motion	1	1	1h	1
Leak Stopper Set				2
Air pump or bellows which shall be simple, robust and complete, with all necessary connections (loose parts shall be	1	1	1	1
Drinking water per person, in containers of each not more than 500 mL	1,5 L	0	1,0L	0.5L k
Food per person	10 000 kJ	0	10 000 kJ	1 tin d
Survival at sea manual
An Effective Radar Reflector
A 406 Mhz EPIRB					1
a	Drinking water in the grab bag (if any) may be replaced with a desalinisator device.
b	Where carrying capacity is greater than 13 persons there shall be two items
c	Australian Standard approved
d	Item per person
e	Complies to ISO 17339
f	No sunburn cream requirement
g	Waterproof sealed-for-life torches. Each torch shall be sealed in clearly marked packaging which prevents the operation of the torch until the packaging is removed. Torch packaging shall be clearly marked with the expiry date of the torch. Each torch shall be capable of providing a continuous light of 6 hours.
h	No requirement to work when wet or in violent motion
i	Suitable for morse signalling
j	Or 10% of the number of persons whichever is greater
k	A water Maker for Cat 1 racing				